CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2000-11

BK: R2439 PG: 00228 FILED

DEC-1 11:48

IN RE: SECURITY PROCEDURES SUBJECT TO ELECTION PROCEEDINGS

WHEREAS, due to the extraordinary circumstances presented to Leon County in the contested 2000 Presidential Election, and

WHEREAS, the 2000 Presidential Election court proceedings are of great public importance; and

WHEREAS, there is a desire to ensure that all court proceedings are conducted in an orderly and safe manner; and

WHEREAS, a clear policy is necessary to keep unauthorized weapons and disruptive persons out of the courthouse, as well as provide additional security measures as needed, it is therefore

ORDERED THAT:

1. The Sheriff of Leon County is authorized to implement any security measures necessary to carry out appropriate security procedures in accordance with the above.

2. These procedures may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (A) Performing weapons' checks, including use of metal detection, at all entrances to the Leon County Courthouse and all areas within or adjacent to the Leon County Courthouse,
- (B) Limiting the number of public entrances to the Leon County Courthouse,
- (C) Limiting parking in or around the Leon County Courthouse, and
